4.9 NASA HONOR AWARDS NOMINATION, SELECTION, AND RECOGNITION PROCEDURES .................. 18
4.10 ONE-NASA PEER AWARD (HONORARY) ............................................................................... 19
4.11 EXTERNAL AWARDS ADMINISTERED THROUGH NASA ...................................................... 20
4.12 Other External Awards ........................................................................................................... 20
1 GENERAL

a. Awards are to recognize organizational and employee outstanding performance, innovation and contribution to the goals of the NASA mission, as well as to enhance organizational climate and employee morale.

b. All awards and recognition are to be consistent with the purpose of the award itself and provide special acknowledgement of the accomplishments, and shall be given:

   for the RIGHT CONTRIBUTION…advances the Agency’s agenda to align values and performance expectations, provides organizational learning, and strengthens the relationship between employees and management.

   to the RIGHT PERSON… when fully deserved, to those employees who meet clearly understood criteria and with full explanation of the accomplishment being recognized.

   at the RIGHT TIME/EVENT… in an appropriate manner, without undue delay, and of sufficient value to be meaningful.

c. All LaRC cash and honor awards and recognition will be aligned with the LaRC’s core values, mission, strategies, and goals consistent with the LaRC’s current Strategic Implementation Plan.

d. Awards will provide for individual and group recognition and will recognize civil servant, contractor (honorary only), and others who, through partnerships, support NASA’s mission at LaRC. Employees of NASA contractors, however, should normally receive honorary awards, such as certificates, medals, photos or other types of non-monetary awards. Recognition of contractor employee performance is the responsibility of the contractor. Exceptions must be coordinated through the Office of Procurement (OP).

e. LaRC Award Committees

   Award committees may be established by the Director, OHCM or higher authority. (Refer to CID 1150.2, “Boards, Panels, Committees, Councils and Teams.”)

f. All external award nominations for NASA and non-NASA awards shall be recommended through two management levels (i.e., Branch Head and Organizational Unit Manager (OUM)) before submission to the ODWRB. Nominations will be forwarded by ODWRB to the Center Director for approval.
2 TYPES OF AWARDS

Awards may be either monetary or non-monetary, and recognition may be given at the Center level, NASA-wide level, or at the Federal government level.

a. Monetary awards may be granted to individual civil service employees (part-time, full-time, temporary, and permanent) or groups of civil service employees, who deserve special recognition for their contributions and performance.

b. Non-monetary awards such as medals, certificates, plaques, photos, pins, etc., may be granted to both civil service and non-government employees. Food, paid for with appropriated funds at an official Center awards event for the purpose of honoring civil servant and non-government employees, may also be provided as a non-monetary award to civil servants and non-government employees and will be limited to events approved by the Office of Director.

c. Time-off awards may be granted to civil service employees for superior accomplishments or other personal efforts that contribute to the quality, efficiency, or economy of government operations.

e. External awards are sponsored by non-NASA organizations.
3 Responsibilities

a. The Office of Director and other directors, managers, supervisors, and review committees are responsible for maintaining the integrity of the LaRC Awards and Recognition Program consistent with the stated awards policies and providing fair and equitable consideration to all employee and group accomplishments.

b. All employees (both supervisory and non-supervisory), as well as contractors and partners, are responsible for identifying, nominating, and providing peer input on performance and accomplishments of civil service employees deserving recognition and award. Recognition of contractor employee performance is the responsibility of the contractor. Exceptions must be coordinated through the OP.

c. The Office of Chief Financial Officer is responsible for awards budget formulation.

d. The ODWRB is responsible for the administration of the LaRC Awards Program; review of awards for adherence to policy and regulations; ongoing evaluation of the effectiveness of the awards program; and providing communication, training, and reference material on the awards and recognition program.

e. The OHCM is responsible for the administration of monetary award programs for SES employees.

f. When established, LaRC review committees are responsible for assuring approved nominations are consistent with awards criteria, relevant information has been considered in reviews, and integrity of the review process is maintained.

g. The Executive Resources, Awards, and Recognition Council (ERARC) is responsible for reviewing and making determinations on Center team awards, quality step increases (QSIs) that exceed Center guidelines, and the Center's annual honor awards. The ERARC is made up of rotational memberships among the OUMs, and the chair rotates between the Center Director and Deputy Director. Membership includes OHCM, Office of Equal Opportunity Programs, and rotational memberships between the Chief of Staff and the Associate Director for Operations.

h. Awards for patentable inventions and for certain scientific and technical contributions are established as separate programs outside of the LaRC Incentive Awards and Recognition Program. Procedures for these programs are described in 14 CFR, Part 1240, Subpart 1.
4 INCENTIVE AWARDS

4.1 Monetary Awards

a. Monetary awards may be granted to individual civil service employees (part-time, full-time, temporary, and permanent) or groups of civil service employees, who deserve special recognition for their contributions or performance.

b. The awards budget is based on a percentage of salaries at the Center determined by the Office of Chief Financial Officer. The Center Team award budget is established by the Center Director. Additional funding is held by the OHCM for annual award ceremonies, the purchase of recognition items, and other Center-level requirements. The remainder of the budget is then distributed to the organizations using an algorithm based on a combination of complement and salary. Organizations will be responsible for managing their awards budget.

c. The approving official shall be at a management level above the recommending official.

d. The Internal Revenue Service state that cash awards are wages; therefore, taxes are withheld from award payments.

e. Monetary awards (except SES awards) will be processed using the LaRC Incentive Awards System for approving, tracking, reporting, and budget purposes. The system may be accessed at URL: http://awards.larc.nasa.gov

f. Award Certificates. The ODWRB will forward blank certificates and folders for awards to organizations for preparation and presentation to their employees.

g. Refreshments. The use of appropriated funds to purchase light refreshments (less than a meal) are authorized for the annual LaRC Honor Awards Ceremony, Service Award ceremonies, and the annual Turning Goals Into Reality (TGIR) awards ceremony. Refreshments for other ceremonies paid for with appropriated funds must be approved by the Office of Director.

4.1.1 Performance Award (PA)

a. This award recognizes and rewards General Schedule employees whose performance, as a minimum, meets performance expectations. It is based on the employee's most recent performance rating of record. General Schedule employees are eligible to receive performance awards. There is a separate statutory and regulatory authority for granting performance awards to SES employees (Title 5, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Part 534). In addition, organizations may not give performance awards to employees not under their direct supervision.
b. An employee who receives a performance rating of “Distinguished” is eligible to be considered for monetary performance awards.

c. An employee who receives a performance rating of “Meets or Exceeds Expectations” is eligible to be considered for monetary awards based on performance, provided that the employee receives a “Meets or Exceeds Expectations” for all performance rated elements (critical and non-critical).

d. The monetary value of the award is determined by the recommending official and may not exceed 10 percent of the employee's annual base salary. Performance awards are paid as a lump sum and are not considered part of an employee’s annual rate of base pay.

e. As a guideline, final performance rating of record is:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Performance Rating</th>
<th>Monetary Value</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>“Meets or Exceeds Expectations”</td>
<td>up to 5 percent of the employee’s base salary</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“Distinguished”</td>
<td>up to 10 percent of the employee’s base salary</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

f. Original completed performance rating of record must be forwarded to the OHCM for filing in the employees’ Official Personnel Folders.

4.1.2 Superior Accomplishment Award (SAA)

a. This award recognizes accomplishments achieved through an individual effort in the form of non-recurring nature. This type of recognition is appropriate when the contribution is in the public interest, connected with or related to official employment, and contributes to the efficiency, economy, or other involvement of government operations, or efforts that made important contributions to science or research, or courageous handling of an emergency situation related to official employment. Supervisors and managers are responsible for reviewing their employees' accomplishments and recommending SAA’s for employee contributions where employee’s performance meets or exceeds job requirements.

b. All LaRC civil service employees (i.e., General Schedule, excepted service, intermittent, stay-in-school, cooperative education students, and temporary civilian employees), with the exception of SES employees, are eligible.

c. The amount of an award is to be based on tangible or intangible benefits (whichever is most appropriate) or a combination of both (Refer to NPR 3451.1, "NASA Awards and Recognition Program,” Appendices E and F).

Supervisors and Managers shall indicate the tangible and/or intangible benefits derived from the contribution on the LF 134, “Recommendation for Award,” and provide justification of the contribution on the LF 134.
Other things to consider in giving justification for an award:

- How One NASA behaviors were demonstrated.
- How the superior accomplishment was connected with or related to official employment.
- How unusual difficulties for a particular project or assignment were overcome.
- How special efforts or innovative duties were performed which resulted in significant economies or other highly desirable benefits.
- How important contributions were made to science or research because of creative efforts.
- How productivity was increased, economy or efficiency improved, and Government operations made more effective.

4.1.3 Group Achievement Award

a. This award recognizes two or more employees involved in a significant accomplishment that is the result of teamwork, rather than the efforts of one single person. All employees contributing to the accomplishment share the award, which may be paid in equal shares or to each employee in proportion to the contribution. All civil service employees, except SES, are eligible.

4.1.4 Center Team Award

a. An annual request is sent to organizations to submit their team nominations to the ODWRB for consideration by the ERARC. Nominations will be reviewed and approved by the ERARC. All employees contributing to the accomplishment share the award, which may be paid in equal shares or to each employee in proportion to the contribution. All civil service employees, except SES, are eligible.

4.1.5 Quality Step Increase (QSI)

a. This award is a step increase in addition to, and apart from, the regular within-grade increase and is given to employees who have demonstrated sustained performance of high quality above that expected at the fully successful level in an employee's position. This award raises the employee's basic rate of pay. It recognizes outstanding performance by granting a faster than normal step increase within the employee's grade level. Exception: if a QSI places the employee in the fourth or seventh step of a grade, the waiting period for a regular within-grade increase is extended by 52 weeks. SES and wage-grade employees are not eligible for QSIs.

b. Annual guidelines on the number of QSIs to be granted will be provided to OUM's. If an organization exceeds Center guidelines, the QSIs will be submitted for review and approval by the ERARC.
A QSI may not be granted to an employee if:

- A rating of record is less than “Distinguished.”
- The employee is in Step 10 of the grade range.
- A QSI has been awarded within the preceding 52 consecutive calendar weeks.

d. In addition, supervisors/managers shall not give QSI’s to employees not under their direct supervision.

4.2 Presidential Rank Awards and Bonus Pay

a. Presidential Rank Awards are to recognize and reward exceptional performance over an extended period of time by career SES employees. Documentation includes Office of Personnel Management (OPM) Presidential Rank Awards Nomination Form OER 10/96. Bonuses between 5 and 20 percent of basic pay for excellent performance may be given to SES career employees. Documentation will include the summary page of NASA Form 1636, “Senior Executive Service Performance Planning and Appraisal.” Contact the OHCM, for additional information concerning SES awards.

4.3 Time-Off Award (TOA)

a. A TOA is an excused absence granted to the employee to recognize superior accomplishments or other personal efforts that contribute to the quality, efficiency, or economy of government operations. Primarily, it is to be used to recognize an employee contribution that is of a one-time, non-recurring nature.

b. General Schedule employees are eligible to receive TOA’s. Supervisors/managers may not give TOA’s to employees not under their direct supervision.

c. A TOA may be granted in amounts of 4 to 40 hours for a single contribution for a full-time employee. For part-time employees, the award will be prorated accordingly.

d. In determining the amount of time off to be granted, the benefits realized by the Government from the employee’s contribution will be considered. The amount of time off should be proportionate to the value of the contribution being recognized as shown in the NPR 3451.1. Below is TOA guidance:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Value to Organization</th>
<th>Number of Hours</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Moderate</td>
<td>Up to 10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Substantial</td>
<td>Up to 20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>High</td>
<td>Up to 30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Exceptional</td>
<td>Up to 40</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

e. A full-time employee may be granted up to a total of 80 hours of time off during a leave year. A part-time employee’s time-off will be prorated based on the employee’s bi-weekly scheduled tour of duty.
f. The TOA leave may be taken immediately following the effective date of the award; however, the leave must be scheduled with the approval of the supervisor. There is no time limit on when the TOA leave must be taken by the employee.

g. If an employee becomes physically incapacitated for duty during a TOA period, sick leave may be granted for the period of incapacitation and the time off rescheduled.

h. A TOA cannot be transferred if the employee transfers to another Federal agency, nor can it be converted to a cash payment under any circumstances.

i. Submit TOAs using the LaRC Incentive Awards System at URL: http://awards.larc.nasa.gov.

4.4 For A Special Task (FAST) Award

a. A FAST Award is designed to provide managers with a tool to give an “instant” reward to an employee who has performed a special activity or accomplishment through presentation to the deserving employee as quickly after the activity occurs as is practicable.

b. The FAST Award is a monetary award of $150. Although the actual cash is not disbursed at the time the FAST Award is presented, it is reflected in the employee’s paycheck on a subsequent date.

c. FAST Awards are designed to be presented by the employee’s first level supervisor.

d. Supervisors will provide a short justification of the specific contribution being recognized on the LF-134.
